

Nero Played Second Fiddle to the Wasters of Deauville

He fiddled while Rome burned—they fiddle away money and time on exotic fripperies while millions are crying for bread—eighty dollars a day for a room, and $150 more for meals—$500 dresses worn once and thrown away—a woman with a rope of pearls that dragged the floor—any girl wearing stockings pointed out as a freak—an ocean resort where no one goes near the water—these are only a few of the almost unbelievable—but true—things Mary Brush Williams tells of this curious freak of fashion.

Forty-eight Laws That Make Marriage Really a Gamble

Thousands of men and women, legally married in one state, would be bigamists elsewhere. Thousands of children become nameless when they cross from one state to another. Divorce is bad enough at its best, but when our multiplicity of laws makes men and women criminals, when it blights the lives of little children, it is time to do something—The Twentieth Amendment, written for THE HOME JOURNAL by one of our most eminent woman lawyers, supplies the remedy.

Which Was the Failure—the Millionaire or the Poor Man?

Here were two men nearing sixty years of age. One had a ruthlessly acquired fortune of dollars; the other had a wife who believed in him, and a happy family of boys. The world called him a failure; his wife thought he was a success. Which was right? And what is success? Tens of thousands of lawyers, doctors, ministers, teachers, farmers, business men are called failures when—the answer is in Hugh McN Kahler's splendid character study, "The Failure."
